

THIS IS SURRATTS FOUNDATION E-NOTICE 2017-4 OF APRIL 1, 2017

Hello Hornets! Here are some items that might be of interest:

1. FOUNDATION LAUNCHES NEW COLUZZI MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP!

[A personal note from your Editor: In 2000, an intrepid (naïve?) group of volunteers took on the challenge of starting a 501(c)(3) foundation to support the great kids at Surratts. To jump-start the fund raising and visibility of this effort, the volunteers conceived of the “Surrattsville Y2K All Classes/Faculty/Staff Reunion,” held in June 2000. Our readers who supported that effort by attending likely recall what a magical, and successful, four-day event that was.

Some of the long-time volunteers, led by key 17-year volunteer Laurie Martin Roberts (74), recently suggested that the Foundation establish a new scholarship fund as a tip-of-the-hat to another 17-year volunteer. That potential honoree was extremely touched and humbled by that lovely gesture, but responded that his Foundation deeds are truly his rewards, and that he would feel uncomfortable being singled-out when so many volunteers and donors have contributed, and continue to contribute (many year-after-year), so much to making the Foundation successful.

Never one to walk away from a challenge, Laurie and company conceived of the following – which hits that resistant individual’s absolute softest of soft spots when it comes to dear ol’ Surratts -- and that individual (yours truly) finds himself obliged to cooperate (despite the name-check).

So, without further blathering (or editing), here’s a lovely note from Laurie.]

“Hello, Surrattsville Alumni, Faculty, Administrators, and Staff: This has been in the works a bit too long. With that said, I am happy to announce the Foundation’s newly-created Roland Coluzzi Memorial Scholarship. This all began with a photo of Mr. Coluzzi throwing a Frisbee sent out by Dan Hume (who thinks the original photo was taken by David Rogers) in a Facebook post on the Surrattsville Alumni Facebook Group. The post received overwhelmingly positive and memorable responses by many students and others. I want to acknowledge the support for this effort of Sandra Simmons and Shelby Oppermann. Thank you, ladies!

Should you wish to support funding for the Roland Coluzzi Memorial Scholarship, please contribute online at www.surrattsville.org, or send your checks notated as “Coluzzi Memorial Scholarship” (using the donor form below) to the address indicated.

Here’s the overview of the new Coluzzi Fund: The Surrattsville High School Foundation, Inc. (www.surrattsville.org), a 501(c)(3) public charity dedicated to supporting the greater Surrattsville High School community, has established the Roland Coluzzi Memorial Scholarship to honor the memory of one of the most admired and beloved educators in the over 100-year history of the School.

During his long tenure as Vice Principal at the School, Mr. Coluzzi achieved the seemingly impossible – walking a fine line between using his extraordinary interpersonal skills to maintain a safe and smooth-functioning academic environment while giving students and student organizations enough freedom not only to succeed -- with sometimes extremely ambitious (radical?) plans -- but also to learn from their failures.

When students from over the decades are asked to describe Mr. Coluzzi, they often respond with phrases like: “What a great guy” “He helped me many times in many ways” “He could have brought the hammer down on some of my errant behavior and made me bitter and defensive, but instead, he simply gave me that look of his and a sly comment and sent me on my way, and that combination was enough to straighten my course going forward”.

A huge student admirer of Mr. Coluzzi, Foundation Chair Henry Smith (71), who worked very closely with Mr. Coluzzi from 1968 to 1971, remembers Mr. Coluzzi this way: “We constantly approached Mr. Coluzzi with a request to hold some outside-the-box (and occasionally hair-brained) student activity. After a brief moment of silence, his response was always this simple phrase: ‘Don’t disappoint me.’ That was all we needed to hear to make us resolve to do our best to ensure that our undertaking was a respectful, constructive and successful one. Of course, we didn’t always achieve those objectives, but we always grew in the process, and often learned more from our failures than from our successes.”

Mr. Coluzzi is fondly remembered for the above, for his inimitable sartorial style, and for his regular appearances as Surrattsville’s own superhero, “Hornetman” (in a long-running P.A. system serial and live events like pep rallies). Finally, the Roland Coluzzi Memorial Scholarship also indirectly honors all of the other educators at Surrattsville over the years who bravely taught under the motto “Let’s give them just enough rope to hang themselves, but keep a sharp knife handy to cut them down when they over-extend.”

LET IT BE KNOWN: To honor Foundation Chair Henry Smith (71), the Foundation is establishing the Roland Coluzzi Memorial Scholarship. This scholarship acknowledges the immense influence Mr. Coluzzi has had on so many of our lives and what he has meant, historically, to Surrattsville High School. The Roland Coluzzi Memorial Scholarship is also a reflection of Henry. Several accomplishments that are a direct result of Henry’s tireless efforts, determination and passion include: Formation of the Surrattsville High School Foundation; Acknowledgement of academic and personal achievement by members of the Surrattsville community; Keeping alumni and former staffers abreast of Surrattsville goings-on through the monthly Surratts Foundation e-Notice; and Bringing Surrattsville’s many generations together--rekindling old friendships and spawning new ones.

Henry will not accept a Foundation Achievement Award for these and many other accomplishments but, rest assured, the Roland Coluzzi Memorial Scholarship has Henry’s name written all over it. It is because of Henry’s altruistic actions that the essence of Mr. Coluzzi will endure. Thank you, Henry! We encourage all members of the Surrattsville community to contribute to this new scholarship fund. Laurie”

[Ed. notes: Truly heartfelt thanks to Laurie and her co-workers for all of the above. And wouldn't it be very, very special if every reader who was helped along the way by Roland Coluzzi – or another Surrattsville educator -- contributed to the Coluzzi Fund, making it the Foundation's most well-endowed scholarship? Some trivia about one particularly fun acknowledgment of Mr. Coluzzi among Surrattsville lore: One of Surrattsville's greatest guitarist – and that's really saying something given how many there have been – is Mark Schultz (76). On his 2011 Boy Wells album "Blue Skies Calling," the fantastic opening track is a song called "Mr. Coluzzi"!]

2. CLASS OF 57 REUNION PLANS. We received this exciting news from the Class of 57: "The Class of 1957 will be having their 60th class reunion the weekend of September 15-17, 2017 at Solomon's Island. Friday night will be Happy Hour at the Stoney's Kingfish restaurant followed by a sit down dinner. Saturday, starting at noon, we will have a picnic at the VFW Post in California, MD. Sunday morning we will meet at the Isaac's Restaurant in the Holiday Inn. We have lost quite a few classmates the past several years. We are looking forward to being together and sharing memories. Please contact Rick Pope at repop1976@gmail.com for additional information.

3. MEMORIES FROM 1949. We received this memory from a few short years ago from Duke Coleman (53): "I am pretty sure it was the first day of school in 1949. The freshman class filed one-by-one into the homeroom of Miss Lillian Guis. Miss Guis would soon become Mrs. Holland and she would also become the favorite of everyone in that freshman class. But on that day she was intent upon learning the names of all those freshman. To that end she let everyone settle into a seat in the five or six rows. Then she instructed us to stand one-by-one and row-by-row and give our names.

This process began and continued without a hitch until some wise guy about midway of the second row stood and gave his name as "Clark Gable." I honestly do not remember the reaction of Miss Guis, but I am certain she would have accepted the joke in the spirit it was given and then moved on. That was not the case when about another row and a half into the process a second wise guy tried the joke again. I do not know who it was. I don't remember what "name" he gave, but he managed to elicit at least a mild reprimand from Miss Guis. Then we continued the process.

My position was about halfway through the last row. I stood and proclaimed, "My name is Ronald Coleman," and there was near bedlam. Miss Guis was already beginning to react when she was interrupted by half the class trying to get the message to her that it really was my name. My full name, then and now, Charles Ronald Coleman, was shortened to just Ronald Coleman through usage since at least the 1st grade."

4. SEEKING CLASS OF 65 MEMBER. Bob Robey (65) is trying to locate Bill Mitchell (65). Please email Bob at rrobey222@gmail.com if you have any information that might be helpful.

7. DON'T FORGET EMPLOYER MATCHING CONTRIBUTIONS! Thanks to the generosity of Craig Bergeman (76) -- and his employer State Farm Insurance Company -- we were recently reminded of the possibility that our readers’ employers might be willing to make matching donations to the Foundation. Please consider checking with your employer to determine if it would be willing to match your contributions (or, of course, to make outright contributions) to our very worth 501(c)(3) organization (IRS number 52-2224546).

8. CLASS OF 64 REUNION THIS MONTH. We received this exciting news from the Class of 64: “Class of 1964 Party on April 29-30, 2017: Plans have been finalized for our 70th birthday party that had to be cancelled last year because of Hurricane Matthew. Even though this year we turn 71 (can't be!), we are going to party like we are back in high school – what a sight it will be! We have said it before: If you are on the fence about coming to Ocean Isle Beach (OIB), NC, get right off and join us. Make the decision now to come party with us - call or e-mail Ginger Trapanotto on 301-318-6544, gingersnap699@gmail.com. As of March 28, we have 45 for the picnic at Roy Revis’ house on Saturday (4/29) and 40 for dinner on Sunday evening (4/30). Dress is super casual. We have kept the cost to a minimum – picnic & dinner is only $27 a person – such a deal!”

9. PAINLESS WAYS TO HELP RAISE FUNDS FOR THE FOUNDATION. Thanks to the many of you who make your Amazon purchases not through “regular” Amazon, but through smile.amazon.com, with the Surrattsville High School Foundation designated as their charitable beneficiary. The smile.amazon.com prices, products and Amazon website are identical to “regular” Amazon, but Amazon makes a charitable contribution to the designated charity for every purchase made on smile.amazon.com.

And thanks to those of you making your internet searches using the goodsearch search engine. It uses the yahoo search engine (which we’re told rivals google and apparently has never failed any Foundation user) and, like smile.amazon.com, makes a contribution to your designated charity for every internet search. Here’s the link: <https://www.goodsearch.com/causes/surrattsville-high-school-foundation>.

10. MORE PRICELESS TREASURES FROM “GREEN LIGHT.” As we previously noted, in 2015 Duke Coleman (53) donated to the Foundation’s Archives a number of copies of an early SHS student newspaper, the “Green Light.” Those editions provide a fascinating glimpse into student life at Surrattsville during the 52-53 academic year, 65 years ago! Here are some interesting musical excerpts from the January 15, 1953 edition of Green Light:

“Music – Junior Girls’ Ensemble. The Junior Girls’ Ensemble was announced this week as follows: 1st sopranos: Joy Irving, Jean Robinson, Ann Mumford, Joan Weirich, Joy Sickler. 2nd sopranos: Patsy Edelen, Jo Ann Simpkins, Joyce Maynard. 1st altos: Bonnie Ellner, Gail Wildes, Barab Simpkins. 2nd altos: Evelyn Mortimer and Lorraine Robeson.

The Record Shop: Teresa Brewer’s “Till I Waltz Again with You” is #6 on the Hit Parade and still on its way up. Teresa has had some real hits in the last year. Look for a “Botch-A-Me” type of song from Rosemary Clooney sometime in the next months. She dislikes them, but she says her fans do, so she will keep on waxing them. For a good T.V. show with recorded music and a little fun added watch Art Lamb and Alethea Agee’s T.V. show on WTTG. The show begins at 4:00 o’clock and ends at 6:00 o’clock. The Jerry Gimma Stron show is on the radio at the same time. Station WMAL. They also have a large variety of tunes of the day. Both shows will answer requests and make dedications if written soon enough. Patti Page, the Singing Rage, is doing well with her records lately. Her latest, “Jealous Eyes.” Jessie M. Robinson, the writer of that big hit “I Went to Your Wedding,” has penned another hit tune in “Keep it a Secret.” Jo Stafford, another girl who has had her share of hits in the past few months, look like she has another in Jessie’s new song. Johnny Ray is teaming up with some of the top vocalists to do a series of duets! Spike Jones has a hot seller in the flip side of “I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus,” the title “Winter” will be one of the top Christmas season and Winter discs by next year. The song has a catchy sort of tune and the words are perfect to form this hit tune. So long until next week.”

11. CLASS OF 67 ANNOUNCES 50-YEAR REUNION! We received this note from the Class of 67 about its upcoming 50-year reunion: “Surrattsville Class of 67 Reunion! Friday, October 20 until Sunday, October 22, 2017! The contract is signed, we have a reunion! The Dunes Manor Hotel, 2800 N. Baltimore Ave, Ocean City, MD 21842, 1-800-523-2888. Rooms are $119 a night plus tax for Friday and Saturday night, all rooms are oceanfront, each with 2 double beds. You will purchase your room directly from the hotel, you will send the reunion committee your check to pay for the reunion dinner. All as soon as possible, please. Here is the link to the hotel's website, <https://dunesmanor.com> so you can see where we will be staying, but please make your room reservation directly with the hotel by phone: 1-800-523-2888, ask for "in-house reservations." You must mention Surrattsville Reunion to get the reduced room price, and to help us make the quota of rooms we are required to have. As a bonus, when we reach 30 rooms, one of the first 30 to reserve will be upgraded to a suite for their stay in a random drawing to be held before the reunion. The hotel's cancellation policy follows at the end of this letter, please read it carefully as the hotel's cancellation policies are firm, they are not within our control. This hotel has a very few king and queen rooms, they will be $139 a night. Rooms will be $79.00 a night for Thursday night or Sunday night if you wish to come early or stay longer.

The Reunion dinner will be at 6pm on Saturday night, tickets are $80 a person. The price will include the room rental, dinner, dancing (hopefully you remember how to dance!), souvenirs, door prizes, and a reunion booklet. Drinks will be at a cash bar. We have incorporated our reunion, the official title is Surrattsville 67 Reunion, LLC., and have established a bank account at Old Line Bank in Clinton to be able to receive your money for the dinner. Please make your reunion dinner reservations by sending a check for $80 for each person attending, with the name of each person with your check payable to: Surrattsville '67 Reunion, LLC, c/o Nancy Miller 8808 Old Branch Avenue, Clinton, MD 20735 at the earliest possible date so we can plan for the number attending. All funds will be placed on deposit in the account at Old Line, all funds will be accounted for and used only to pay for the banquet and items needed for the events of the weekend. If you wish, include with your check one song you want to hear played, we will try to include everyone's favorite.

We will have a reservations table set up at the Dunes Manor to sign in Friday. Check-in is officially after 4, but you are certainly welcome to come earlier. The hotel will provide us with a hospitality suite at the hotel for all to use as a gathering spot if we book enough rooms. So everyone: Come, and book early! We will have a meet and greet Friday evening at Seacrets in Ocean City at 6 pm, it is a very fun bar, the plan right now is that those who wish to get together on Friday will meet there, drinks and eats will be on individual tabs. Seacrets is at 117 49th Street Ocean City, MD 21842. Their website is: <http://seacrets.com>. When you get inside, look for the green balloons to find the Surrattsville group. It is a very big place!

On Saturday, weather permitting, those who wish to will gather in the hotel parking lot for a fun group trip to visit Assateague Park to, hopefully, see the wild ponies. Details of that outing will follow. There is talk of a golf outing Saturday morning at one of Ocean City's great golf courses, we are still looking for a golfer/classmate who wants to organize that. Any volunteers? And Sunday morning, those who wish to have brunch in the hotel's restaurant can do so. We will have an area set aside for our group, but the tabs will be individual. Most importantly, we still need email addresses for our classmates! We have email addresses for less than half our class. Please help us all by locating all classmates so each can receive notice of the reunion. All notices of reunion events will be sent by email only. Thank you! Make your reservations! We look forward to seeing you, The Reunion Committee: Jimmy Hanson, Chris Parker, Nancy Miller, Ron Stout, Janet Brown, Kathie Malkie, Carol Mitchel Baynes and Jeff Buckler.”

12. UPDATE ON CLASS OF 75 REUNION. We received this very wild and crazy update from the Class of 75 about their upcoming reunion plans! “Class of 75 Birthday Party - The Class of 75 is turning 60 next year and is planning a birthday party in Las Vegas on Labor Day weekend. All classes, friends, parents, teachers, and adult children are invited to join in. Information will be communicated via the Facebook group "Surrattsville Class of 75 turns 60". Not all of the details are finalized, but Friday September 1, 2017 we will be meeting at the Still Bar, located in the Mirage Hotel. It will be a very a la carte event in order to keep the expenses down. I can be reached by Facebook private message or sberry75@gmail.com, for any private concerns or questions. Steve Berry (75)”

13. MORE SURRATTSVILLE MEMORIES FROM DAYS GONE BY. The following is the latest installment of Wayne Tatum (74)’s always evocative memories of his time at Surrattsville Junior High in the 1960s. (We’re running Wayne’s reminiscences as a serial that started in the July 1, 2016 e-Notice, and we’re sure Wayne’s stories will stimulate lots of memories of times likely long gone-by among our readers. Wayne can be reached at manymiles@netzero.net.)

“Glen Campbell had a fairly good show, forever changing my taste and enjoyment of films with this one little clip entitled “Blaze Glory”, which still exists thanks to youtube! (Showtime begins in one minute; you still have time to visit your own snackbar.)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3HIGuEGi1Hc>

Okay, that was fun. So what else did we know in 1969, by the numbers? One was a song by Three Dog Night. Two was always better than one, unless you had a melancholy thing going on. Three was the number of performers in Cream and The Jimi Hendrix Experience. Four was the number of our favorite British Invasion quartet, \three if you thought one was dead.

Meanwhile, lurking just below this thin veil of rocking coolness were the basic educational quartet of Math, English, Social Studies and History. Gym and band were my sanity check. ADHD wasn’t really the known common cause of all mischief. Laptops, Androids and other attention robbing devices weren’t in vogue then. Our latest scourge of depression and low self-esteem stemming from evil snarky blogs and lack of daily exploration out of one’s domicile were in those days dealt with on The Field of Bullies, and not by dragging a hoard of weapons to the school of your choice and blasting random innocent people.

Low attention span could be a problem only if you missed opportunity and news of upcoming events. In fact, my lowly attention span was about ten seconds on important things, but open for hours on fun and entertainment. My adolescent teen mission was to explore this minute to minute new world.”

14. CLASS OF 87 SEEKING LOST CLASSMATES. We received this item from the Class of 87 Reunion Committee: “Class of 1987 looking for Classmates—Planning 30 year reunion for October 2017 and searching for classmates. Please join Facebook group Surrattsville Class of 1987 for updates <https://www.facebook.com/groups/SurrattsvilleClassof87/>. For non FB users e-mail Mike Cassidy at mike-cassidy@hotmail.com or Stacey Fowler at Stacey.fowler8@gmail.com.”

15. SEEKING YEARBOOKS FOR FOUNDATION ARCHIVES. Thanks to the generous gifts from several of our readers noted in prior issues of the e-Notice, the Foundation’s yearbook collection is becoming more complete all the time. However, the Foundation Archives is still lacking:

- All yearbooks before 1951
- 1983-1989
- 1995
- 1998
- 2000
- 2001
- 2004
- 2005
- 2007-present

If anyone has extra copies of any of these missing links, we would love to have them.

(And the Foundation has surplus Boomerangs available for $10 (including shipping) from these years: 1991, 1999, 2002, 2003, and 2006. Please send me an email at hsmith@smithdowney.com if you would like one.)

16. COPIES OF 1929 AND 1944 YEARBOOKS AVAILABLE FOR VIEWING. And speaking of yearbooks, thanks to the efforts of Foundation Archivist Shelby Lee Oppermann, the 1929 and 1944 Surrattsville yearbooks are available for viewing online. (Our readers can go to the “Surrattsville Alumni” Facebook Group, click on Photos, and then click on Albums, to view those treasures.) The Foundation would love to have old yearbooks, or even photocopies or scans of them, for its Archives.

17. FOUNDATION ARCHIVES SEEKING PERMANENT PHYSICAL HOME. And speaking of the Foundation’s Archives, we’re seeking a permanent home for these precious objects. Anywhere in the Clinton/Southern MD area would be fine, and a room or building that starts at 8 x 10 and goes to infinity would be very nice. If you have a lead on a space that might be available to preserve this very important history, please send me an email at hsmith@smithdowney.com.

18. CLASS OF 97 PLANNING 20TH REUNION. We received this email from Jim Wilkinson (97) about the Class' upcoming reunion plans: "As part of our planning for the upcoming 20 year reunion, we are looking to update our contacts information. Please email me at jwilktnl@gmail.com if you have any information on Class of 97 members. Thank you!"

19. FALLEN HEROES PLAQUE AVAILABLE FOR EVENTS. Here's an update from Bob Jeter (64) on the Foundation's Fallen Heroes Plaque that hangs in the Foundation's Legacy Hall at the School alongside the American and Maryland flags that flew over the U.S. and Maryland Capitols in its honor. "The Fallen Heroes Plaque is available for display at class reunions or any other worthy functions. Feel free to contact me, Bob Jeter, 904jeter@gmail.com or 410-315-9403, preferably well in advance of the date so transfer arrangements can be made. Bob"

20. DON'T FORGET TO CHECK-OUT THE FOUNDATION'S VARIOUS YOUTUBE VIDEO PROGRAMS. Thanks to the tireless efforts and creative talents of the Foundation's youtube master, Foundation Board member Sandra Smith Simmons (70), the Foundation's youtube channel now features many programs of interest, such as programs featuring the Foundation's Fallen Heroes Plaque that was conceived and executed by Bob Jeter (64), the 2015 Achievement Award recipients, and the 2015 Scholarship recipients. The programs can be found at: <https://www.youtube.com/user/SurrattsvilleFDN>.

Here's hoping that Spring has sprung wherever you are!

In Memoriam

MARGARET LOVELESS died on February 11, 2017. Margaret was born on December 30, 1921 in Windsor, Missouri. She and her husband lived in Forestville and in Upper Marlboro before retiring to Catonsville. Margaret's school nurse career began at a boy's school in Washington, DC, and ended after many years as the school nurse at Surrattsville. Margaret is survived by her sons, Leonard Eugene Loveless and his wife, Dorothy of Columbia, MD and Carl Edward Loveless of Upper Marlboro; sister, Eleanor Bennett of Lewes, Delaware; grandsons, Kirk and Eddie Loveless and great-grandchildren, Gabrielle, Abigail and Hunter Earl Loveless. Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of one's choice.

WARREN EARLY (74) died on June 29, 2016, from heart failure at his home, where he lived with his family for twenty-one years. He was married to Regina for twenty-five years and had two sons, Aaron and Owen. He is also survived by two siblings, Dolores Cody and Keith Early, and by niece Christiana Cody, nephew Brian Early, and cousin Joanne Early. Warren was a passionate, caring, and loving man. He enjoyed reading, playing the drums, and spending time with his family and friends. Warren's long and satisfying career in the music industry included, most notably, eighteen years with Polygram Records. He enjoyed sharing the experience of music with everyone he met, whether it be with CDs to listen too, tickets to a show, or just animated conversation about favorite albums or artists. Building on his years as an insider in the music industry, Warren created a successful eBay business, merchandising the wealth of memorabilia he had collected over the years. In 2010 Warren took on the adventure of running a local business, the Courthouse Service Center in Maidens, VA, before retiring from professional life in 2012. Donations in Warren's memory can be made to Operation Smile or Doctors without Borders.
