

THIS IS SURRATTS FOUNDATION E-NOTICE 2018-12 OF DECEMBER 1, 2018

Hello Hornets! Here are some items that might be of interest:

1. THE FONDEST AND MOST GRATEFUL OF FAREWELLS FROM YOUR EDITOR.

Although it doesn't seem possible, I have had the extraordinary privilege and pleasure of editing these monthly "e-Notices," and serving as the Foundation's Board Chair, for 19 years! From the time when the Foundation was conceived, until the present, there always seems to have been something very interesting – and sometimes extraordinarily interesting –going on in our little cyber-hometown that has been worth noting in our informal e-monthly. From returning to its owner a Surrattsville class ring found on a German elementary school playground, to reporting on an Achievement Award recipient's receipt of his third Michelin star, our readers have sent me a continuous treasure trove of information to keep these e-Notices going strong. (All 19 years' worth of back issues are on the website at www.surrattsville.org.)

I want to offer my humble and heartfelt thanks to the thousands of you who, for almost two decades, have supported the mission of the Foundation, with donations and otherwise, and kept it on a consistent upward growth trajectory, all for the benefit of the truly great kids at Surratts. I hope you will continue to support the organization and its outstanding new volunteer leaders as we enter an exciting, and sure-to-be-successful, "2.0 phase." If you have questions about or input for the Foundation generally, please contact our new President Ta'Mya Harrison (07) at tamya.harrison@outlook.com. If you have information for an e-Notice, please contact our new Communications Liaison Jontice Small (07) at Jontice.small@gmail.com.

Here's hoping our paths continue to cross, perhaps when wandering the halls of dear ol' Surratts at some future Foundation fund raiser. All the best, and lots of love, to each of you. Go Hornets! Henry Smith (71)

2. HORNET TV PROGRAM FEATURED ON THE NEWS HOUR! Some of our readers may have seen evidence of Surrattsville's great TV production program – to which the Foundation has made grants -- on the PBS Student Reporting Lab feature during a recent broadcast of the PBS News Hour! As part of a collection of commentary about youth voting, Hornet Brandyn Prince shared his thoughts with viewers. After the broadcast, faculty member Michelle Dyer sent a nice note to the Foundation saying "The Foundation's investment in video equipment for our school 'paid it forward' allowing our students the opportunity to produce video like this!" Congratulations to these outstanding and creative young scholars!

(The segment can be seen at: <https://www.pbs.org/newshour/show/what-would-get-young-people-to-vote-these-teens-have-some-ideas>.)

3. SPECIAL 2018 ANNUAL CAMPAIGN CONTINUES. As we have reported previously, the Foundation's current volunteer leadership, most of which has been in place since the Foundation was founded in 2000, will be handing-off the reins to an outstanding and energetic group of new leaders on January 1, 2019. We want to give the 2018 Annual Campaign special prominence in the hope that the retiring volunteers will be able to effect this hand-off at a time when the Foundation is in the best possible financial condition.

If you support the Foundation's mission and enjoy any of its efforts (such as these e-Notices), please consider using the "Donate" button on www.surrattsville.org, or the Donor Form below, to participate in the 2018 Annual Campaign. Remember: because the Foundation has no overhead, no donation is too small (or too large!) to benefit the Foundation. And please check to see if your employer has a matching charitable donation program. Thanks in advance for considering joining this very special 2018 initiative!

And here's the comprehensive list of our great new volunteer leaders:

Ta'Mya Harrison (07), President

Tayana Harrison (07), Treasurer

Rontanetta Gibson (11), Secretary

Jontice Small (07), Communications Liaison/e-Notice Editor (jontice.small@gmail.com)

Kevin Stith (15), Social Media Director

Myles Bradshaw (11), Foundation Photographer

Elsa Tlapechco (15), New Board Member

Susan Roley Malone (65), New Board Member

4. VERY COST-EFFECTIVE (I.E., FREE!) WAYS TO HELP RAISE FUNDS FOR THE FOUNDATION. Thanks to the many of you who make your Amazon purchases not through "regular" Amazon, but through <https://smile.amazon.com/>, with the Surrattsville High School Foundation designated as their charitable beneficiary. The smile.amazon.com prices, products and Amazon website are identical to "regular" Amazon, but Amazon makes a charitable contribution to the designated charity for every purchase made on smile.amazon.com.

And thanks to those of you making your internet searches using the goodsearch search engine. It uses the yahoo search engine (which we're told rivals google and apparently has never failed any Foundation user) and, like smile.amazon.com, makes a contribution to your designated charity for every internet search. Here's the link: <https://www.goodsearch.com/causes/surrattsville-high-school-foundation>.

5. PDF VERSIONS OF 70, 71 AND 72 BOOMERANGS AVAILABLE; YEARBOOKS SOUGHT FOR ARCHIVES. Jon Miller (72) has very generously offered to scan his 70, 71 and 72 yearbooks for anyone needing a copy. Please contact Jon at jonmiller5535@aol.com if you would like a copy.

And, on a related point, thanks to very generous donations our yearbooks from our readers, the Foundation's Archives are now missing only these yearbooks:

- All before 1950
- 1983-1989, inclusive
- 1995
- 1998
- 2000 and 2001
- 2004 and 2006
- 2007-present, inclusive

If you would like to donate to the Archives a copy of any of these missing links, please let us know.

6. CALLING BASEBALL PLAYERS AND WRESTLERS! Some of our readers might remember the articles about the very successful reunion, several years ago, of Hornet wrestlers from the Coach Lew Jenkins era, with the Coach and his family. We're now planning a baseball players plus wrestlers reunion with the Coach and his family for Sunday June 2, 2019. Please send an email to Henry Smith at hsmith@smithdowney.com if you would like to be added to the list for updates on that sure-to-be-memorable event!

7. CLASS OF 70 PLANS GOLDEN REUNION. We received this exciting news from Leslie St. Clair (70): "The Class of 1970 has our 50th reunion year coming up soon in 2020. I'm working on a new contact email list -- please send me your email address to Stclair.leslie@comcast.net. Also, please join our Facebook Group called "Surrattsville 1970" to get information about the reunion plans. Since our last couple of reunions were open to surrounding classes, please include your class year if you request to join our Facebook page and if you send me your email address. To get reunion information you must join our page and send email me your address, because I will not be posting any plans/info on my personal Facebook page."

8. CLASS OF 68 REUNION NEWS. We received this update on the Class of 68's upcoming 50th Reunion: "For December 30, 2018-January 6, 2019 sea cruise reunion, contact Cruise Planner Jeannie Lippard, jeannie@cruiseplanneronline.com, 410-987-SAIL (7245) or 443-871-5914."

9. CLASSES OF 82, 83, 84 AND 85 REUNION NEWS. We received this update on the upcoming reunion for these great Classes: "Save the Date: The SHS classes of 82, 83, 84 and 85 are holding a joint class reunion on October 12, 2019, from 5 pm -10 pm, at the Holiday Inn in Solomon's Island, MD. We are still working on finalizing the details so please look for more information in the coming months. If you have questions, please get in touch with someone from your class that is helping with the reunion. If you would like to be added to the email list, please get in touch with your class emailer. 10. DON'T FORGET THE FACEBOOK GROUPS OF THE FOUNDATION AND OF EACH CLASS YEAR.

More and more of the communications about the Foundation, Surrattsville generally, and about individual Class year activities, have moved to the applicable Groups on Facebook. The Foundation's general Surrattsville Group, called "Surrattsville Alumni," is now approaching 2100 members, and the various Class Groups – such as "Surrattsville 1969," "Surrattsville 1973," etc. – are growing vigorously. To stay in touch, and to see a regular parade of interesting photos and info about dear ol' Surratts, please consider joining the Surrattsville Alumni Group and your own Class Group.

11. MORE HISTORICAL TREASURES FROM 1964-1967 SURVEYORS! Here are more treasures from The Surveyor from the 1964-1967 period. Thanks to Nancy Miller (67) and the Class of 67 for donating these "journalistic time capsules" to the Foundation Archives! The following are some excerpts from the June 1967 issue:

"Sauntering Surveyor: The "Sauntering Surveyor" made a final sentimental journey through Surrattsville's halls and the feminine half of this famous spy team couldn't help but shed a tear as the realization came that this was the final Sauntering Surveyor column that she would write. Graduation brings about mixed emotions – it is perhaps the only time the sophomores can enjoy the status of being envied by the seniors, as we are finishing what they are just beginning. Through farewell eyes, the Sauntering Surveyor played the last "I Spy" and observed some particular quirks. First off, we'd like to offer congratulations to the sophomores who finally found their court ... Glenn Hopkins astounds everyone with his impressive imitation of a piece of bacon. With such talent to his credit, Glenn will surely go far in this world ... Evidently, Mrs. Johnson doesn't take too well to baseball games played in the Junior Court, as one such game which promised to be a season great was called to a halt by the tennis racket wielding Mrs. J ... Joan (sister of Jane) was having a wild time in the cafeteria with that squirt gun. Thought they went out with hopscotch and undershirts, Joan? ... During English class Debbie Ehrhardt can show you a variety of lipsticks in all colors and flowers ... What really goes on in the dark room? ... Any banshee-like wails perceived in the English wing are sure to be coming from Mrs.

Olinger's up and coming English students who are presenting Pygmalion (My Fair Lady). Here I met up with a special friend (affectionately called "Grunt") who has helped me find my way when I got "lost" while wandering the great expanse of Surratts. Thank you, Special Friend. The foyer looks like a flea market when everyone gets together and sells during lunch ... Are Duncan and Parker really as great as they are? ... A last look into Mrs. Johnson's office revealed the seniors picking up their announcements. This traveler did – kind of half-heartedly though, when I remembered what they stood for: graduation, tears, departures, college, and farewells ... Goodbye.

Top 10% Congratulated on Scholastic Achievement; 29 Seniors Receive Recognition: In order of class rank, the top 10% of the class of '67 are: Nancy Patterson, Dianne Faulstich, Norman Geddes, Dianne Nutwell, Elaine Gott, Betty Pavlick, Ed Robbins, Steve Bryan, Nancy Patrick, Sally Soderburg, Glenn Hopkins, Jane Sallade, Sally Downey, Jean Hicks, Todd Seeleman, Nancy Coyne, Chuck Bunch, Cindy Bouchard, Mike Buckler, Barbara Rendler, Tim O'Connell, Ken Faulstich, Gerald Crane, Pat Gann, Julie Melvin, Garrett Polhamus, Dwight Nixon, Carol Mitchell, and Kathy Owens.

Seniors Donate Traditional Gifts: As their traditional gift to the school, the senior class will place the school seal near the flag pole in front of the school. In memory of Mr. Pryde, they will contribute the remainder of their funds to the John M. Pryde Memorial Library. The senior class gift was originated by the class of 1956. From 1960 until 1966 the gifts were placed in the Senior Court."

12. ... AND MORE HISTORICAL TREASURES FROM "GREEN LIGHT." As we previously noted, in 2015 Duke Coleman (53) donated to the Foundation's Archives a number of copies of an early SHS student newspaper, the "Green Light." Those editions provide a fascinating glimpse into student life at Surrattsville during the 52-53 academic year, 66 years ago! Here are some excerpts from the April 30, 1953 edition:

"Music Notes: Reports on composers this week have proved interesting and entertaining. In 7B Music, June Shifflett and Jean Merriman gave a report on Frederic Chopin, with Bonnie Sellner playing a Prelude, John Page an Air with Variations, and Helen Bovbjerg a Masurka of Chopin's. The class enjoyed further information about Chopin and his music when Mrs. Moorehead played the record from our Masters series. Harriet Lusk and Kathy Hummer were the committee from 7th grade for the famous Mendelssohn. Harriet's painting illustrating "Midsummer Night's Dream" is on display and Jean Reasebeck's portrait of Mendelssohn is posted on the bulletin board. In 7A, Jay Irving and Paula Jones presented an original skit in preparation for their report.

Next week is National Music Week, and Prince George's County is honoring it by concerts throughout the County. Our school goes to Oxon Hill, in presenting a concert with Gwynn Park HS, Laurel, Frederick Sasscer, and Oxon Hill.

Junior Class News: Everyone who attended the Prom reported that they had a wonderful time and we are glad they did. The Junior Class would like to thank the following people for helping to make our dance a success: Mrs. Noyes, Mr. Pugh, Mr. Pryde, Mrs. Maust, Mrs. Merritt, and Mr. Hill. Congratulations to the following girls who are on the May Court: Lois Hinchliffe, Myra Rogor, Betty Anne Shifflett, and Janet Goddard. Belated Happy Birthday wishes to John Sickler. Some of the Junior girls are going to be in the 4-H Chorus which is going to sing at the Folk Festival at Frederick Sasser High School on Saturday evening May 2 at 8 p.m.”

13. A HISTORY OF THE TUESDAY BOOTS. In response to a request included in the most recent e-Notice, Russ Barkley (67) kindly sent along the following history of The Tuesday Boots, but had to report that he and his brother Jerry (the drummer in the band) know of no audio recording of that ensemble. We nation of fans will have to call up in our memories the sight and sound of one of Surrattsville’s most accomplished and beloved bands as we read this fascinating history:

“A History of the Tuesday Boots Band. By Russell and Jerry Barkley, 2/2/2015: The band, Tuesday Boots, originally formed in Clinton, MD as The Cavaliers in late summer of 1964 as the inspiration of the Barkley brothers, Ron, Russ, and Jerry, and close friend Ron Lilly (aka Ron Jones). An early photo of the band can be found at the Surrattsville High School Foundation website. Ron Barkley played lead guitar and sang lead on most vocals, with Ron Lilly playing rhythm guitar and contributing harmonizing vocals, Jerry Barkley on drums and vocals, and Russ Barkley on bass.

Ron, Russ, and Jerry had grown up in various states on the East Coast (Florida, New York, Maryland) due to their father being in the U.S. Air Force. But they spent a large part of their childhood and youth in Maryland due to their father being periodically stationed at Andrews Air Force Base. In the summer of 1964, after moving back to Maryland (Clinton) from Newburgh, NY, the three brothers formed their first band, The Cavaliers, along with their new neighbor, Surrattsville High School classmate, and friend, Ron Lilly.

The band typically rehearsed at the Barkley home, originally on Arbroath Drive in Dorchester Estates, Clinton, MD. Then later on practices took place at their Sweeney Drive residence, also in Clinton, MD. The Band’s first “gig” was for a house party for Linda Diehl, a fellow Surrattsville student, in the Fall of 1964. By early 1965, the band had played at other student parties. Throughout that year, it had expanded its range of performances to the campers’ graduation party at Camp Yocomico on Andrews Air Force Base, and then on to multiple appearances at dances at Surrattsville Junior and Senior High Schools, and at teen club at Taney Junior High School in Camp Springs, MD.

By October of 1965 the name of the band was changed to Tuesday Boots, a phrase modified from a song titled “Thirsty Boots” written by Eric Henderson, but performed at the time by Bob Dylan. The band considered calling itself Thursday Boots but settled eventually on the official name, Tuesday Boots. As such, the band continued to occasionally play at the schools noted above as well as at Crossland High School dances, various “battle of the bands” performances in the area, the Clinton Fire Department Saturday night dances, at the Suitland Fire Department Saturday night dance hall, Andrews Air Force Base Officers Club (pool party), Bolling Air Force Base enlisted men's club, Henderson Hall, Fort Belvoir, Quantico Marine Base, and even St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

During this time, Jerry was playing a set of Leedy/Ludwig drums with Zildjian cymbals. Ron Barkley was playing various guitars, including a Fender Stratocaster, a Gibson guitar, and Rickenbacker 12-string guitar. Ron Lilly was playing a Fender Stratocaster, and Russ was playing a Fender Jazz bass guitar. All three guitarists were playing through Fender amplifiers.

As the band perfected its craft and became more widely known it also performed in various Washington, DC nightclubs, such as at Harrigans, and the Georgetown nightclubs Crazy Horse, the Corral, Silver Dollar, and The Cellar Door, among others.

As for their musical repertoire, the Tuesday Boots performed a few songs from the California surfing and hot rod musical genres of the time, including Wipe Out, songs from The Beach Boys (Fun, Fun, Fun, Little Deuce Coupe, Help Me Rhonda, Barbara Ann), The Kingsmen (Louie Louie), and Paul Revere and the Raiders (Kicks, Just Like Me). But most of their music came from the groups that formed the "British Invasion" into the U.S. music scene at the time. This music included numerous Beatles songs (I Want to Hold Your Hand, Rollover Beethoven, Hard Days Night, Johnny B Good, and many others), as well as hits from The Rolling Stones (Satisfaction, Get off of My Cloud, Under My Thumb, Ruby Tuesday), Eric Burdon and the Animals (House of the Rising Sun), The Beau Brummels (Laugh, Laugh), the Dave Clark Five (Glad All Over, Bits and Pieces), and The Kinks (All Day and All of the Night), among others. As folk rock became popular, the band also performed songs by The Birds (Mr. Tambourine Man, Turn Turn Turn), and other U.S. bands in that genre.

By 1966 the group had linked up with Fordy Thompson, a talent booking agent in the DC area (who also managed the popular band Little Joe and the Imperials). This partnership thereby helped to further increase the group's playing opportunities at nightclubs and military bases in the greater DC area. During that time, the band added a fifth member, Bruce MacPherson, as a keyboard player (using a Wurlitzer electric organ/piano). During this year, the band also appeared on a local TV dance show similar to the nationally televised American Bandstand. The program was called Wing Ding and was hosted by radio rock jock Kirby Scott. For that appearance, the Boots covered Dirty Water by the Standells.

Though the talent agency with which they were working greatly expanded the bookings of the band, it also made a few errors in judgment as to the venues it selected for the band. For instance, the band made a rare and obviously inappropriate appearance at a country and western bar in southeastern Pennsylvania fronting for a more locally known band, Venus and Her Fly Traps, as well as another such country bar in Southern Maryland (Charles County). But mostly the group played in the greater DC area.

The original band dissolved in the Summer of 1967, when Russ Barkley headed for college at the University of Maryland, and Ron Barkley and Ron Lilly headed to the Los Angeles, CA area to try and further their musical careers.

But Ron Lilly returned to Maryland within a few months and formed a new version of the band. He recruited Scott Thompson (on lead guitar) and John Jarvis (lead singer), with Ron Lilly now playing bass guitar. Jerry Barkley joined them as drummer and the Tuesday Boots were back in business. A bit later, Doug Gwen joined them on keyboard. This version of the band played in the greater DC area until mid-1968, performing at many of the same venues as the original band (see above).

Then, later in 1968, Jerry Barkley left the group to move to California to work with brother Ron Barkley. Ron Lilly kept the remaining members of Tuesday Boots together and recruited Bob Venables, an earlier classmate at Surrattsville High School (Class of '67, now deceased), to replace Jerry Barkley on drums. That version of the band (and its name) moved on shortly thereafter to play in the Boston area for about two years before dissolving.

In the summer of 1969, both Ron and Jerry Barkley returned from California to the greater DC area. They formed yet another version of Tuesday Boots by recruiting Dennis Boone for lead vocals and rhythm guitar and Jan Zukowski on bass guitar and vocals. They played at high schools, Prince George's Community College, and many of the clubs and bars at which the original Tuesday Boots band had played (see above), but especially the Georgetown nightclubs. For instance, they were the house band at various times for the Corral and Crazy Horse nightclubs in Georgetown. And so for a while, two versions of the band, Tuesday Boots, existed – one (involving the Barkley brothers) in the greater DC area and the other (involving Ron Lilly) in the Boston area.

The Barkleys' band, Tuesday Boots, that performed in the greater DC area continued to play songs from some of the earlier British music noted above but also new material from the 1968-69 era including Jimi Hendrix, Cream, Led Zeppelin, and Buffalo Springfield. But they also added new material including popular R & B music, such as songs by James Brown (I Feel Good), Wilson Pickett (Mustang Sally, 634-5789), and Sam and Dave (Hold on, I'm Coming), and many others. This "second generation" of the Barkleys' band broke up in 1970 after a year of performing together.

Ron Barkley moved on to play with the band, Leaves of Grass, Jan Zukowski joined up with the group, The Cherry People, and Jerry Barkley and Dennis Boone formed the band, Boone's Farm. By the Fall of 1972, Ron Barkley had married and left the DC area to reside and play with bands in various states in the Southern U.S. eventually landing in Florida. His last group performances were with the Gulf Coasters in the late 1990s into 2004 playing in the Naples, FL region and other Gulf coast cities of Florida. Jerry Barkley also eventually relocated to this same city and periodically played with brother Ron in this and other bands.

Ron Barkley moved to Elizabethtown, NY about 2004 and died in 2006 in a car accident. Ron Lilly had eventually returned to the Maryland area and passed away in 2005 of natural causes.

Jerry Barkley continues to reside in Naples, FL. And Russ Barkley lives in the Richmond, VA region.

While the Tuesday Boots never recorded any commercial records, the band was a very popular group in the Washington, DC area during the 1964-1970 period. (NOTE: More recently this band name was adopted by a progressive folk music group from Cork County, Ireland, that now has a presence on YouTube but has no relation to the original band or its members).”

[Ed. Personal Note: What a special final article for your retiring Editor! I can remember like it was yesterday the first time I saw The Tuesday Boots – then The Barkleys – playing at a pool party for Rob Lifton at my great pal Rick Lifton’s house on Victoria Drive. Watching them surreptitiously from the bushes, I got the bug, bad, and more than a half century later I still have the extraordinary and regular pleasure of playing live with my current band, that includes Hornet Roger Owens (73). Thanks, Tuesday Boots/Barkleys, for the inspiration!]

14. FOUNDATION ARCHIVES SEEKING PERMANENT PHYSICAL HOME. The Foundation is seeking a permanent home for its extensive Archives. Anywhere in the Clinton/Southern MD area would be fine, and a room or building that starts at 8 x 10 and goes to infinity would be very nice. If you have a lead on a space that might be available to preserve this very important history, please send me an email at hsmith@smithdowney.com.

15. FALLEN HEROES PLAQUE AVAILABLE FOR EVENTS. Here’s an update from Bob Jeter (64) on the Foundation’s Fallen Heroes Plaque that hangs in the Foundation’s Legacy Hall at the School alongside the American and Maryland flags that flew over the U.S. and Maryland Capitols in its honor. “The Fallen Heroes Plaque is available for display at class reunions or any other worthy functions. Feel free to contact me, Bob Jeter, 904jeter@gmail.com or 410-315-9403, preferably well in advance of the date so transfer arrangements can be made. Bob”

16. DON’T FORGET TO CHECK-OUT THE FOUNDATION’S VARIOUS YOUTUBE VIDEO PROGRAMS. Thanks to the tireless efforts and creative talents of the Foundation’s youtube master, Foundation Board member Sandra Smith Simmons (70), the Foundation’s youtube channel now features many programs of interest, such as programs featuring the Foundation’s Fallen Heroes Plaque that was conceived and executed by Bob Jeter (64), the 2015 Achievement Award recipients, and the 2015 Scholarship recipients. The programs can be found at: <https://www.youtube.com/user/SurrattsvilleFDN>.

Wishing all of our readers a wonderful remainder of the holiday season and a wildly enjoyable 2019. Farewell! Henry Smith (71)
